George Washington, quiet young was about to go to sea as a Naval officer. Everything was arranged. The little boat had come on shore to take him off. His trunk was carried down to the boat. He went to bid his mother farewell and saw the tears in her eyes. He saw that his mother would be distressed if he went and perhaps never be happy again. He just turned around to the servant and said " Go and take my trunk back.

I will not go away to break my mother's heart". His mother was surprised with his decision and she said to him " George, God has promised to bless the children that honour their parents and I believe, He will bless you."
