Kanyakumari is a beauty spot to the south of India. It is surrounded by seas on three sides. The Indian Ocean stretches away to the south, to the east lies the Bay of Bengal and to the west Arabian sea. Pilgrims from many parts of the country come here to bathe at the meeting point of the three seas and to worship in the temple. The sea around Kanyakumari is generally calm. Many visitors have felt that a certain peace and quiet always rests over the place. The hours of sunrise and sunset are the best hours of enjoying the beauty of the place. The sun rises from the Bay of Bengal in the morning and sets in the Arabian Sea in the evening. In fact, it is the only spot in India where one can see the sun rising from the sea and setting in the sea.
