a) Make the précis of the following paragraph of about one-third of the original length and give a suitable title. 7

The Road is one of the great fundamental institutions of mankind. Not only is the Road one of the great human institutions because it is fundamental to social existence, but also because it's varied effects appear in every department of the State. It is the Road which determines the sites of many cities and the growth and nourishment of all. It is the Road which controls the development of strategies and fixes the sites of battles. It is the Road that gives its framework to all economic development. It is the Road which is the channel of all trade, and, what is more important of all ideas. In its most humble function it is a necessary guide without which progress from place to place would be a ceaseless experiment; it is a sustenance without which organised society would be impossible, thus the Road moves and controls all history.

b) Read the paragraph carefully and answer the questions below. 8

There is some truth in the common saying that while dogs become attached to persons, cats are generally attached to places. A dog will follow his master anywhere, but a cat keeps to the house it is used do; and even when the house changes hand, the cat will remain there, so long as it is kindly treated by the new owners. A cat does not seem to be capable of the personal devotions often shown by a dog. It thinks most of its own comforts, and its love is only cupboard love.

- (a) What is the common saying about cats and dogs?
- (b) How would you describe a cat in comparison to a dog?
- (c) Do you think a dog is capable of the personal devotion? How?
- (d) What would you like to have? A cat or a dog? Why?

Q-5 Attempt all questions (15)

a) Make the précis of the following paragraph of about one-third of the original length and give a suitable title. 7

To forgive an injury is often considered to be a sign of weakness; it is really a sign of strength. It is easy to allow oneself to be carried away by resentment and hate into an act of vengeance; but it takes a strong character to restrain these natural passions. The man who forgives injury proves himself to be the superior of the man who wronged him, and puts the wrong-doer to shame. Forgiveness may even turn a foe into a friend, so mercy is the noblest form of revenge.

- b) Read the paragraph carefully and answer the questions below. 8

The grandeur of a drawing room and a living room is best felt when there is an element of nature's pride possession – a tree, or an indoor plant, or even for that matter a sapling. Children as of now get to see less of greenery and more of technologically driven software parts. Fortunately we have come to a point where we can bring the world of flora to our homes.

In the emerging world scenario, interior decoration has become a passion and a dictum for healthy living. The art of planting in small pots with its branches neatly trimmed gives rise to small neat structures of plants. These plants are easy to grow indoors as long as they have soil, air, light and water. Plants can be grown in the house all year round. Of late Bonsai have attracted the attention of one and all. Botanists say that bonsai are ornamental trees or shrubs grown in a pot and artificially prevented from reaching their normal size. The Japanese specialize in bonsai and Ikebana. The latter flowers are displayed according to strict rules.

- (a) How can the grandeur of drawing room be best felt?
 (b) What do the today's children miss and why?
 (c) How can the world of flora be brought to our homes?
 (d) What do the Botanists say about bonsai?
