Q-7 Read the given passage carefully and answer the following questions : (14)

Unemployment is one of the greatest problems of almost all the countries. India is a developing country. That is why the nature of unemployment is completely different from what is it available in more advanced countries. It is definitely not the result of the deficiency of effective demand rate. It is because the resources and the potentialities have not been fully utilized. We can find a remedy for this unemployment in expanding the stock of capital assets or units of production. The nature of unemployment in rural India is somewhat different from the urban places. As agriculture is the most important occupation in the rural areas so a large number of the people remain unemployed for a number of months during the year. The small scale industries and handicraft can help in reducing unemployment in such areas. The problem of urban unemployment is complex one. It can be divided I two categories- unemployment among industrial labourers and unemployment among the educated middle class.

1. How can rural unemployment be reduced?
2. Rural and urban unemployment are of similar kind. Is it true or false ?
3. What is the main reason of rural unemployment?
4. What kind of unemployment is found in urban areas?
5. Is India developed or developing country?
6. Give synonyms of the words 'occupation' and 'large'.
7. Give appropriate title to the passage.
