- a) Make the précis of the following paragraph of about one-third of the original length and give a suitable title.
- Men who are always grumbling about their poverty, complaining of their difficulties, whining over their troubles, and thinking that their lot in this world is mean and poor, will never get any happiness out of life or achieve any success. However mean our life may be, if we face it bravely and honestly and try to make the best of it, we shall find that after all it is not so bad as we thought: and we may have our times of happiness and the joys of success. There is nothing common or unclean, until we make it so by the wrong attitude we adopt towards it.
- b) Read the paragraph carefully and answer the questions below. 8
- Too much importance must not be attached to the wrongs acts done by children, particularly if they happen to be of a minor nature. Many boys and girls at a young age are likely to be in the habit of stealing, neglecting their studies, slipping out of their classes, or using bad language. In nearly every case, the root cause of the trouble is the fear that proper care of the child is not taken in the house, or sufficient interest is not shown in him. But if the parents were wise, they would correct the faults of their children by paying more attention to them. Whatever the case, one thing should never be done. The bad thing in the children should never be repressed, that is, they should not be compelled to change for the better under fear of the rod. Physical punishment done not improve them. It only makes worse than before.
- What do boys and girls at a young age do?
 - What is the root cause of their misbehavior?
 - What is the duty of a wise parent?
 - Why should not a rod be used to make children better?

- Q-5 Attempt all questions (15)
- a) Make the précis of the following paragraph of about one-third of the original length and give a suitable title. 7
- The great advantage of early rising is the good start it gives us in our day's work. The early riser has done a large amount of hard work before other men have got out of bed in the early morning the mind is fresh, and there are few sounds or other distractions, so that work done at that time is generally well done. In many cases the early riser also finds time to take some exercise in the fresh morning air, and this exercise supplies him with a fund of energy that will last until the evening. By beginning so early, he knows that he has plenty of time to do thoroughly all the work he can be expected to do, and is not tempted to hurry over and part of it. All his work being finished in good time, he has a long interval of rest in the evening before the timely hour when he goes to bed. He gets to sleep several hours before midnight, at the time when sleep is most refreshing and after a sound night's rest, rises early next morning in good health and spirits for the labours of a new day.
- b) Read the paragraph carefully and answer the questions below. 8
- Science and technology have relieved mankind of degrading drudgery. They have added to man's comfort, health and enjoyment of existence.
