Gandhi Jayanti is a national festival celebrated in India to mark the occasion of the birthday of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, who is unofficially called the "Father of the Nation". Gandhi is remembered for his contributions towards the Indian freedom struggle. Gandhi developed the novel technique of non-violent agitation, which he called "Satyagraha", loosely translated as "moral domination". Gandhi Jayanti is celebrated in order to pay tribute to the great leader of India. We remember Bapu and his great deeds by celebrating the Gandhi Jayanti.

We are pleased to invite you to attend a seminar on "A Legal Workshop for Women's awareness" on behalf of Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti organized by Women empowerment Cell, C. U. Shah University. The details are given below. The girl students and female faculty and staff members of all constituent colleges of C. U. Shah University are heartily invited for the same.
