Introduction:

Training provides basic understanding of workings of various departments of Hospital.

The Process:

The training begins with selection of Hospital. Students will provide schedule of visits to different departments by the competent authority. Students are expected to understand workings of different departments by way of observation and discussion with people working in those departments. Students are expected to keep records of their learning by way of keeping log diaries. The log diaries will be regularly monitored by the concerned supervisors.

Upon completion of training, students will submit the log diaries to their supervisor. Prepare the report and make presentation thereof.
