A Report on “A Visit to an old age home”

With permission of Honorable Provost Dr. Ved Vyas Dwivedi, yesterday on 11th July 2016, the faculties & students of VBT's Institute of Commerce visited “An Old Age Home” named “Matru Vandana” of Wadhwan city.

This social visit was arranged with a purpose to build a bridge of understanding the gap of thoughts, circumstances and other realities between old and new generation. This may help the students to be aware with the system of respecting and treating elders.

Under the guidance of Principal Mr. D.M.Shah and other faculties the students of the college gave contribution for collection of funds which was used to provide launch to the residents of the organization.

The manager of the old age home, Mr. Bhatt welcomed us. He explained the past and present of the organization with future planning to start health related projects. He narrated all the details from nail to hammer regarding the organization.

The students met the residents and talked to them with such an intimacy that they are their grandparents. The residents were also pleased and happy to meet the students.

The aim of this visit was to make the students aware about the grief of old generation with a view to bring them out of their grief by heart touching & sympathetically talk and behavior. This aim was achieved by students which is a great achievement for their family and society also.

After a heart touching discussion the students remembered the quotation of William Shakespeare,

“When a father gives to his son, both laugh but
When a son gives to his father, both cry”

At the time of departure every one become emotional but the satisfaction of life time lesson was clearly seen on their faces. With a hope to arrange another such social visit we returned home.
